2026-04-16 07:26:01 You Asked

Based upon the books of Ezra and Nehemiah approximately how many returned to the land of Israel from exile under the leadership of Zerubbabel, Ezra and Nehemiah?

DeepSeek

Based on the books of Ezra and Nehemiah, the approximate number of people who returned from exile under the leadership of Zerubbabel, Ezra, and Nehemiah is as follows:

- Under Zerubbabel: The whole assembly that returned numbered 42,360 people (Ezra 2:64; Nehemiah 7:66)[reference:0][reference:1].
- Under Ezra: A significantly smaller group returned, with the number of men listed totaling 1,496[reference:2]. Some sources estimate the total number, including women and children, to be around 2,000 people[reference:3].
- Under Nehemiah: The Bible does not specify the number of people who returned under Nehemiah's leadership.

It's important to note that the number for Zerubbabel's return is consistently recorded in both Ezra and Nehemiah. The numbers for Ezra's return are provided in the book of Ezra, while the Bible does not provide a specific number for Nehemiah's return.